THE HOME, ITS PROBLEMS AND INTERESTS

This dainty little suit, if made of golden brown voile with collar, cuffs and

FOR BOUDOIR WEAR.

The Simple Japanese Kimono Still in High Favor.

The simple Japanese kimono is in greater favor than ever for negligee wear, because of its ease and grace, and the quickness with which it can be ar ranged or discarded. Many beautiful and quite Oriental designs in cotton crepes are shown in the shops for this purpose. These can be made up quickly and inexpensively, or, if desired, fash ioned out of dainty silks. The boudoing the heelless toilet slipper made out of a piece of the fabric in her kimono

The short kimono is also much favored crepes or of handkerchiefs. Red and blue bandannas and white handker with colored borders are favorites for this negligee. More fullness is required for the kimono than the combing jacket.

The Grecian Costume.

The strictly Grecian costume of white made to fall very full in gathers, with cord and tassel arrangement at the neck or waist, is another style which finds high favor. Sometimes the material is draped to fall from the left shoulder or from both in soft folds, held by a know or buckle. China and India silks, crepe de chines, and cotton crepes are desir able for such robes.

For the thoroughly modern boudon maid a bewildering display of materials is offered-white and delicately tinted chiffons, mousselines, gauzes, and point d'esprits. A liberty silk robe is shown quin girdle to secure it at the waist line Ruffled and plaited ruchings have in-A red crepe de chine has angel sleeves of accordion pleated chiffon, edged with red ruching. The yoke is made entirely of the ruching, which has a tiny silk cord edge, Colonial Dressing Gowns.

Dressing gowns of the Colonial style are picturesque and becoming, in addition to their merit of ease and comfort. Many pretty and practical things are shown in dressing sacques in China silks and laces. A typical one was made o blue satin ribbon and insertion, with blue satin ribbon and insertion, with little plaited, fan-shaped pleces of silk inserted at intervals below the waist. This feature also made a full, graceful collar and sleeves.

Foliate sacques with heavy lace collars of frish crochet make serviceable garments. The honeycomb effect is a pleasing feature of the newest ponged boudoir sacques. It gives graceful folds, and is varied by little touches of beading and tinsel.

Here is a modish evening and dinner bodice of white chiffon. The bertha is bordered at the neck with deep red roses and embroidered round the edge with white and red. The soft sleeves and cascaded fall at the bust are also embroid-

COURT PUTS RESTRAINT JUDGE JOHN J. WEED

ON PERSISTENT LOVER

Hypnotism Alleged.

All the parties are prominent socially.
Mrs. Creighton alleges Currie exercises a hypnotic influence over the girl.

the woman lay unconscious in the street or several hours. She is still in a crital condition. A reward has been offered by the fath-

BLIND MAN CAUGHT NEGRO WHO STOLE CHILD'S MONEY

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., July 27.-Although blind, Contractor William C. McCormick, led by a little boy, capared a negro thief at the Leith works

The negro drew a big knife, but Mcormick wrested the weapon from the cllow's grasp, and then compelled him restore two out of five dollars he had to restore two out of five doings he has stolen.

He then made the negro go to work for him in a stone quarry to repay by labor the other three dollars he had stolen and spent.

McCormick had given a small boy a five-dollar bill to have it changed on Saturday night. A negro took the money, saying that he would have the bill changed at the Morgan Hotel. He did not come back. Led by the child, McCormick found the negro and the boy identified him.

QUEER THINGS WOMEN DO.

GOWNS OF BATISTE

Valenciennes Lace Enters Largely Into Trimming.

Handsomest and most effective of all re the gowns of batiste, white, or colored, embroidered or elaborately trim-med with lace. Pale shades in pink, blue, and lavender are charming, the solid color being relieved by lace and the solid color being relieved by lace and the coloring in the hat.

Although for simpler gowns and even elaborate silk costumes narrow Vaenciennes is exceedingly smart, still the one inch edging can vere be so effective as the broad Valenciennes, lierre, and Irish point, no matter in what profusion the narrower lace may be used.

An Attractive Yoke Model.

Most effective are the gowns of batiste edging and wide Valenciennes used interchangeably. One attractive model had a square cut, collarless yoke of embroidered batiste with a deep bertha of lace falling almost to the broad girdle. Beneath the bertha the sleeve consisted of a large puff of plain batiste, below which was a narrow ruffle of lace and a deep cuff of the embroidered tatiste edged with lace. The skirt consisted of alternate rows of lace and batiste embroidery of the finest kind, each row slightly wider than the one above, and the edge of both lace and embroidery forming a finish for the top of the material below. The belt was of black velvet, and about the neck was worn a narrow velvet ribbon. The hat was black, of the flat, sailor shape, with one long, white ostrich plume about the crown. Where black and white is becoming it will be seen, but lighter shades are more in vogue this season.

Another pretty gown made up in the plain batiste had a yoke of wide Valenciennes. There was also a deep pointed bertha of the lace caught up on either side so as to form a pointed effect just in front and on the sleeves. The yoke, too, was rounded, with a decided V at the front, giving here an added dip. Between the bertha and the yoke were two tiny ruchings of batiste, and just in front a low knot of narrow blue satin ribbon, the ends coming slightly below the end of the bertha the sleeves had two puffs of the material separated by only one row of shirring. Below these uarrow, full puffs was a puff of lace of the same width, the sleeve being finished at the febow with a fall of the lace.

A Lace-Trimmed Skirt. An Attractive Yoke Model.

A Lace-Trimmed Skirt.

The skirt was put on the band in full pleats and some few inches below the hips was added a band of broad lace, finished on each side with two small finished on each side with two small ruchings like those used between the bertha and the yoke. Just in front, about five inches apart, were two of the four loop ribbon bows, the ends hanging well down below the foot of the lace. These ends were caught in two or three loops and bows.

Besides the two on the front of the skirt there were two more of these bows on each side, the side knots being on the lower end of the lace instead of the top, as in front and back. Just above the hem was another row of this broad lace insertion. The girdle was of wide blue ribbon. The parasol was blue and the hat was of white stray, trimmed with liacs and blue ribbon, with the long-ribbon streamers tied under the chin in poke bonnet style.

SUMMER TOILETTES

The Costumes Must Have Correspondingly Dainty Lingerie.

Now that the season has advanced, one can note the really new touches to be seen in the summer clothes. Las year the fascinating cainty lingerie un SAVANNAH, Ga., July 27.—What lawyers pronounce the first case on record of its kind was presented in the superior court, when Mrs. Eva Creighton, a wealthy widow, obtained an injunction restraining D. M. Currie, a young man of this city, from communicating with her daughter, Celeste, fifteen years old.

Communication is prevented "either by letter, note, telegraph, telephone, by letter, note, telegraph, telephone, whistle, sign, signal, device or scheme whatsoever, whether practiced alone or former amount of the United States.

A strong friendship grew up between Mr. Lincoln and Judge Weed, and the former amount of the scinating cainty lingerie underwaists were faintly visible under the extremely thin waists and blouses even during the hot weather. These same lingerie underwaists, with bows here and there over them, are worn again this summer to an even greater degree, for most of the French blouses and waists are more elaborate with lace and hand work than ever before, and being so extremely thin waists and blouses even during the hot weather. These same lingerie underwaists, with bows here and there over them, are worn again the practice of the law, his chosen profession. He often had for his opponent in the courts, in the fifties, Abraham Lincoln, who afterward became Precident of the United States.

A strong friendship grew up between Mr. Lincoln and Judge Weed, and the former amount of the States were faintly visible under the extremely thin waists are boursely the not weather. These same lingerie underwaists, with bows here and there over them, are worn over a contract of the States.

A strong friendship grew up between Mr. Lincoln and Judge Weed, and the former amount of the States were faintly visible under whe extremely thin waists and biouses even during the hot weather. These same lingerie underwaists, with bows here and there over them, are worn over the proving man the practice of the law, his summer to an even greater degree, for most of the French blouses and the extremely thin waists are boursel

> The White Skirt Now Is Plain. The usual white skirts worn with was at one time counsel for the Five these blouses are rather plain, reaching to just above the top of the half shoe or

All the parties are prominent socially. Mrs. Creighton alleges Currie exercises a hypnotic influence over the girl.

HIGHWAYMEN CHLOROFORM

WOMAN IN THE STREET

PITTSBURG, July 27.—A sensational robbery took place late Saturday night in a well lighted street in Wilkinsburg, a suburb, but was not reported to the Pittsburg police until yesterday.

Miss Alice Knuff was going to her Pittsburg police until yesterday.

Miss Alice Knuff was going to her home when she was waylaid by two masked men, who chloroformed her and took from her two diamond rings, her diamond earrings and about $30 in cash. The woman lay unconscious in the street for several hours. She is still in a critical condition.

The smartest hats of the moment,

Livilized Tribes.

Since Mr. Weed came to Washington about form the Court of Claims acquired a lucrative practice. In business he was frequently associated with Jefferson Chandler and Robert G. Ingersoll.

Judge Weed was also for many years prominent in temperance circles. He was a member of Pioneer Council Sons of Jonadab and was always active in the work of the order.

Judge Weed was taken ill several weeks ago in the office of E. H. Thomas, in this city. As soon as practicable helf to pits, blue and white chiffon hats, with blig bows across the front and sometimes long streamers of ribbon to which he had suffered a long time.

The smartest hats of the moment, white liste or sittle condition. The smartest hats of the moment, The smartest hats of the moment, however, are the broad-brimmed directoire shape with the Jam-pot crowns, trimmed with a flat band of leaves set closely round the crown, a couple of huge peonles of different tones of the same color, and a knot of velvet and satin laid flat on the brim at the back, the same satin, or perhaps more flowers, appearing under the brim at the left side where the hot is lifted on a box. toire shape with the fam-pot crowns.

Peter Grogan Credit for All Washington.

Store Closes at 5 P. M. Saturdays at 1 o'clock.

QUICK, IF YOU WOULD PROFIT BY THESE FUR-NITURE DIS-COUNTS, AND ON

will end next Saturday, July 30, at closing time-1 p. m. Until that time we offer splendid discounts on our entire stock of Parlor, Bedroom, and Dining Room Furniture. If you are one of our old-time patrons, you understand what we mean when get whatever you need; you know all about our easy payments. If you are not a patron of ours as yet, now is one of the best times you will ever have prices and easy terms of credit.

Peter Grogan, 817-819-821-823 Seventh Street

ICED TEA

Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co Cor. 7th and E.

BRANDOLINE All Drug Stores... 200

more easily than by giving close attention to your teeth.

We're open Sundays until 1 p. m.

CR. PATTON'S UNION DENTAL PARLORS, 010 F ST. N. W.

Sore Feet Made Comfortable.... 250 Evans' Foot Lotion Once a Day. 25 Cents.

EVANS' DRUG STORE, 922-924 F St. N. W.

Cooking With Coke is Most Satisfactory

No trouble to build a coke fire. It lights and heats up quickly—and burns evenly and satisfac-torily. Costs little.

25 Bushels Large Coke, delivered...$2.50
40 Bushels Large Coke, delivered...$3.70
60 Bushels Large Coke, delivered...$4.30
25 Bushels Crushed Coke, delivered $3.00
60 Bushels Crushed Coke, delivered.$4.50
60 Bushels Crushed Coke, delivered.$4.50

Washington Gaslight Co. 413 10th St. N. W.

McCray Modern Sanitary Refrigerators. Store, 620 F Street N. W.

Wed Thirty-two Years And Are Now Divorced

Husband Says Wife Concealed Fact of First One Is Dead and Four Are Critically III Issues Injunction Forbidding Him From Was for Many Years Member of the Husband Being Alive for Twenty Years. Step-Daughter Denies Allegations.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., July 27.—Run-ning through a period of thirty-two years, a romance which has interested the Dakota courts came to light a few divorce to James F. Seacord, of New followed this union.

Married After the War.

Seacord served throughout the civil war. He maintains that in 1866, when he completed his service in the Union army, he returned to New Fochelle. He was young and active. He saw Mrs.

Mary Allen, was introduced to her, fell in love with her and married her. At "I want the time in the saw with the saw in t that time she was a widow with a ten-

Seacord in this action says that Mrs.
Allen asserted that her husband was dead. His name was John N. Allen. Seacord, after the marriage, became a contractor and acquired property. He said that it amounted to $66,000, which he made over in the name of his wife.

I happy as a couple could possilly be, Two years after the marriage word came to my my mother that her husband, John M. Allen, was alive in New York. She immediately communicated this fact to my stepfather.

"Mr. Seacord knows very well that my mother intrusted to him this information."

Gossip Informed Plaintiff. During the dworce trial evidence was introduced to show that in 1902 a Mrs. Prior visited New Rochelle and informed Mrs. Seacord had in turn been trans-

Suit was instituted two years ago in Daughter Makes Explanation.

NEW YORK, July 26.-When relatives of Mrs. Mary Allen Seacord, of New Rochelle, were shown the above dispatch from South Dakota there were a few angry persons in that village. Indeed, Seacord's own brother, Law-rence Seacord, who lives at 84 Main divorce to James F. Seacord, of New Rochelle, N. Y., a contractor and head of the Grand Army post of that city.

Courtship of Allen. She told the story of her mother's is given.

The contention of the plaintiff in this wife, is that he had been married to her more than twenty years before he knew that she had a husband living.

The contention of the plaintiff in this wife, is that he had been married to her more than twenty years before he knew that she had a husband living.

The contention of the plaintiff in this wife and child early in the sixtles. If the attending physician was unable to certainly diagnose her trouble until the liness of her companions was repeated at that time just returned from the liness of her companions was repeated to plaintiff in this wife and child early in the sixtles. If the attending physician was unable to certainly diagnose her trouble until the liness of her companions was repeated to plaintiff in this a lodge function. Among the refresh-ments served was ice cream and no fill who is away on a visit at this time, ever get a glimpse of him after he left his wife and child early in the sixtles. If the attending physician was unable to certainly diagnose her trouble until the liness of her companions was repeated or become intelligible to said was at one time counsel for the Pive All the parties are prominent socially. An investigation followed and all symptoms pointed to ptomaine poison.

happy as a couple could possibly be. Tw my mother intrusted to him this infor-mation. His own brother will verify the fact. There is no proof which we can give that my father was alive when my mother married Mr. Seacord.

"It was said that he was seen in the village streets. It could never be veri-Wr. Seacord and his wife signed articles for a separation. His property had been in Mrs. Seacord's name. She returned to him one-half of the estate, which amounted to about $12,090. He then signed papers that he would not molest her again.

"He is today about sixty-six years old and his wife is of the same age, My children were brought up never to know that Mr. Seacord was their step-grand-father."

Lawrence Seacord, a brother of James F. Seacord, substantiated Mrs. Waterbury's statement. A member of the family said that a woman of New Rochelle was behind the action for disorce. She has been friendly with James F. Seacord for several years. Mrs. Seacord is an invalid, and is now in a visit to friends in another part of the county.

ELIZA J. EVERETT SAYS SHE IS JUDGE'S WIDOW

ing that she is the widow of Judge D. R. Anthony, an editor, and a brother George H. Everett, of Laconia, N. H., of Miss Susan B. Anthony, is dying at George H. Everett, of Lacona, A. H., of Lass Sasan D. Anthony, is dying at bridge Old Ladles' Home, is seeking a share of his $12,000 estate, and has begun an action in the New Hampshire summoned to his bedside.

At the time of Judge Everett's death, which occurred early this year, the next of kin was supposed to be his brother, it being known that Sarah F. Everett, whom he married in this site.

again, she admits, but why she made Henry R. Eskite, 22, and Anna H. no legal complaint she will not tell. Schroth, 13.

MISS ANTHONY'S BROTHER DYING IN LEAVENWORTH

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., July 27 .- Col.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

to Judge Everett in Boston, January 26, 1852. She was never divorced from him, she says, although they separated in 1863. She knew that he had married william P. Campbell, 27, and Fannie Lowther, 22.

ICE CREAM PTOMAINE POISONS FIVE WOMEN

POMEROY, Ohio, July 27.-Mrs. J. M. Pritchard, an officer of the Rebekah lodge, of this place, is dead, as the result of ptomaine poison, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. C. W. Jones, Mrs. Johanus McCarty and Mrs. E. A. Ward are criti-

Twenty-five members of the lodge

among others who partook of the ic

AND LOST HIS CASE

PHILADELPHIA, July 27 .- When the rain is falling and the highways are covered with mud how high may a crosses the street. Magistrate Joseph S. Boyle was asked to settle the question, when Miss Belle Kennedy, a winsome maid of twenty-two, of 818 North Forty-sixth Street, was arraigned by Ben Savage, a special policeman. "It was raining last night and I didn't care to wet my skirts," she said. "It isn't anybody's business, anyway." "But," broke in Savage, "she raised her skirts so high that I-er-er-er couldn't help-er-er seeing her-er-er leg." crosses the street. Magistrate Joseph leg."

The magistrate discharged Miss Ken

SUES RAILWAY COMPANY FOR $10,000 DAMAGES

Mrs. Alice Emmons today brought suit against the Washington Railway and Electric Company for $10,000 damages, alleging personal injuries, ages, alleging personal injuries.

Mrs. Emmons says in her declaration that she was a passenger on one of the cars of the defendant on the 23d day of July. 1904, and when the car arrived at Ninth and L Streets northwest, she attempted to alight from it, and was injured by the sudden starting of the car before she had safely gotton off.

She alleges that she was seriously and permanently injured.

AMERICAN FURNITURE THE BEST. American furniture is superior on ac-unt of the technical skill employed i its mechanical execution, and, although we have no distinctive national style. American designers produce some of the best examples of the "period" styles—such as those of the eighteenth century—now in vogue in every civilized country. Furniture of this type made in Europe falls apart in this climate and in our overheated houses. Indeed, dealers have to make over the pieces they import. But a fine piece of furniture of American design and American manufacturers even find sale for their products abroad. A Philadelphia house sells furniture to members of the German nobility, and once filled a large order for the Sultan of Merocco, after his agents had examined the product of other countries. Several New York firms make furniture in the French style for customers in Farls.—World's Work.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Biguature Chart Helithers

CHILDREN!

70U will want next Sunday's Times to learn about the Billy Bounce Club and how to get a Billy Bounce button. These buttons are gotten up especially for the young readers of The Times.

Don't Miss It!